

W. P. WALTON.

In an address to the democracy, the National Committee urges it to renewed diligence and says: "We may confidently expect a majority in Ohio for Cleveland and Hendricks in November. West Virginia has, by its splendid and decisive majority for a democratic Governor at the October election, already declared its purpose to give its electoral vote for our candidates in November." Of the extraordinary and disgraceful methods employed by the Blaine managers to carry these States it tells this over true tale: "They expended not less than five hundred thousand dollars in Ohio and more than one hundred thousand dollars in West Virginia in their political work. They did not use money only. They called from every State the officeholders best fitted to do the work at which they were put. They crowded these two States with such men. They employed in political jobs the men engaged in the postal service of the United States. It has been openly charged, without denial, that the payment of the veterans by the Commissioner of Pensions has been delayed by him with the sole purpose of coercing them to vote for Blaine. They made Marshals of the United States and their Deputies, who ought to be the guardians of the rights of every citizen of the United States, a part of their machine force. They armed them and incited them to violence and outrage. They expect to pay for the weapons and services of these men out of the Treasury of the United States." And yet they were signally beaten in the one and obtained but a doubtful victory in the other. The hope of democratic success now amounts almost to a certainty.

The effort to oust Mr. George Baber from the possession of the Sunday Argus has caused a considerable unpleasantness and one fight. While seeking to remove the injunction preventing him from further exercising control of the sheet, Judge Hargis, late Chief Justice, intimated that Col. Bennett Young, one of the plaintiffs, had instigated a pretty stiff article which had appeared in the Commercial. "You are an infamous liar," the Col. retorted and the ex-Chief Justice, jerking up a law book flung it at the Col. who advanced and gave him a clip or two with his fist. The belligerents were then separated and after apologizing to the court were fined $20 each.

The democratic majority in West Virginia is 6,000, a big gain over the last election, notwithstanding the Ohio methods were used to carry it by the republicans. This is the last October election in that State, the amendment changing the State election to November having been adopted by a large majority. The prospect is that the State will have a solid democratic delegation in Congress next time, as the only republican district went democratic sufficiently to insure the defeat of Goff, the only republican Congressman from that State.

COMPLETE returns from the Ohio election give the republicans a plurality of 11,321, a loss of 8,000 as compared with the October election in 1880 and about 24,000 as compared with the November election of that year. If there is anything in this result to encourage the republicans or discourage the democrats we fail to discover it. The reverse is true as to either party and we have more confidence now that Cleveland will be our next President than we have had since his nomination. The race must go.

The death of Mrs. Mary Morris, sister of Gov. Blackburn, will cause a pang of sorrow in the breasts of hundreds of Confederate soldiers that she befriended during their incarceration at Camp Douglas. She not only spent a large fortune in ameliorating their hardships, but suffered greatly herself during her imprisonment as a rebel sympathizer. She was a woman of great strength of character and of fine accomplishments.

The signs all point unerringly to the fact that the race must go.—[Interior Journal. And Ohio set the example on Tuesday.—(Somerset Republican. You are mighty right she did. The falling off in the republican majority of 8,000 from the corresponding election in 1880, shows that the people are becoming disgusted with the g. o. p. very decidedly. There's hardly a doubt now that the race will go.

The Commercial-Gazette when asked by a correspondent if it is safe to bet that New York will go republican next month responds, "We do not recommend anybody to bet, even if we know it is safe to do so." Very virtuous to be sure. The paper sees that defeat is inevitable there and gets out of a direct answer by this affectation of a quality that even the truly good Deacon Smith does not possess.

Gov. HENDRICKS is humping himself in Indiana now to carry the State by the largest democratic majority she has ever given. His list of appointments show that from now until the 4th of November he will speak twice a day, three times and in some instances four times a day.

MR. WALLACE GRUELLE has a touching editorial on the death of his little daughter Nellie, in the last issue of the Breckenridge News. We sincerely sympathize with him in the loss of the dear child of his old age.

THERE are many differences between George Washington and Jas. G. Blaine, but the greatest is that the former couldn't tell a lie and the latter does not seem able to tell the truth.

Two weeks to-day till the Presidential election.

A SUMMARY of the casualties growing out of the election in Cincinnati alone shows three persons dead, 4 not recovered, 3 severely wounded and 15 slightly wounded; total 25. It was this kind of bulldozing which enabled the republicans to carry the city and elect two republican Congressmen by the most palpable frauds ever attempted in an election.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.

—The Grand Lodge of Masons will meet at Louisville to-day.

—A crank made an assault on Governor Cleveland yesterday, but was taken before any damage was done.

—Jack Slaughter, colored, was arrested for murder committed at Richmond two years ago, at Lexington.

—State Senator J. K. Swafford was shot and killed in a street fight with Monroe Hudson, Jailer at Sparta, Tenn.

—This is the last week of the Exposition and the managers have put many new attractions on the programme the six days.

—Bamberger & Co., wholesale clothiers, Cincinnati, assigned with $50,000 liabilities, $45,000 assets and $27,014 preferences.

—James Wormley, the celebrated hotel proprietor of Washington, D. C., died at the Massachusetts General Hospital of calculi.

—A bill before the Vermont Legislature provides a bounty of from 50 cents to $1.50 per bushel for grasshoppers, according to the season in which they are killed.

—James Harper, of the Harper Brothers, publishers, was married last Saturday to his brother Fletcher Harper's widow, who is described as a very handsome woman.

—John Kelly, in his talk with the next President Wednesday evening said: "Gov. Cleveland, Tammany Hall will give you 50,000 votes, no matter what other men tell you."

—Ex-Mayor Grace will be nominated for re-election by the opponents of Tammany Hall. H. T. Grant is the nominee of Tammany. Both gentlemen are loyal to Gov. Cleveland.

—In 1880 West Virginia gave Hancock a majority of 2,300 votes over Garfield and Weaver. In 1884 it has given at least twice that majority over the fusion of Blaine and Butler.

—The Blainites acknowledge now that to keep Ohio in the republican column in November they will have to repeat their bulldozing tactics over there and spend not less than a half million more dollars.

—Ten burglaries in four nights at Somerset, have excited the citizens to frenzy, especially as numerous personal indignities have been inflicted, and there will be a lynching bee if any captures are effected.

—Some fiend turned a switch at Putnamville, Ind., and a passenger train on the Monon Route went thundering through it, more or less injuring 100 passengers and causing a loss to the company of $75,000.

—The total vote cast in Ohio at the election last Tuesday was 789,373, against 718,168 for Governor in 1883. Roberson's majority over Newman was 11,321. Rome is beat Frank Hurd for Congress by 150 votes.

—Indictments were returned against the teller and book-keeper of the Planters' and Mechanics' National Bank, of Petersburg, Va., for making fraudulent entries, by which the cashier and other parties were credited with deposits not made by them.

—Mrs. Geo. A. Madison was brutally murdered in the kitchen of the house in which she and her husband and adopted child lived, in Covington, Ky., on Friday morning, and her husband was arrested for the crime and is held for examination.

—The arrivals of immigrants at United States ports in September amounted to 37,300, against 45,719 in September, 1883. In the first nine months of the current year there were 377,888 immigrant arrivals, or 74,289 less than in the corresponding period of 1883.

—J. Robert Williams, of David City, Neb., with $27,000 belonging to other people, has disappeared. He was Superintendent in a Sunday-school, candidate for election on the St. John ticket, and ran for District Judge last fall. It is supposed that he is in Canada.

—Gov. Cleveland's reception in Brooklyn Thursday was not less enthusiastic than the greeting of the business men of New York extended on the previous evening. Thousands of democrats and independent republicans made up what was one of the greatest meetings ever held in that city.

—It is reported from Harrodsburg that the death of Dr. Dillion was not a murder at all, but was the result of opium and whisky. His quarrel with Curry was a trivial affair, and the blow he received on the head at that time had no serious effect. Curry has not been held for trial.

—The astronomers at the Greenwich Observatory announce that the star Arcturus is approaching the earth and that it will smash things finer than toothpicks when it strikes. However, as it will not arrive here for 93,000 years, it should not be allowed to divert public attention from Blaine's record.—[Chicago Times.

—Horace B. Claffin is the greatest dry goods merchant in the city of New York. Though a republican of long standing, he endorses the declaration of Mr. Beecher that Blaine is a "continental liar," and declares that he will not support him. He says that out of 918 employees of his house, 900 when questioned on the subject had signified their intention to vote for Cleveland and Hendricks.

—The case of William Hoffman, who was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for the murder of William Wickerson in Harrodsburg, was reversed Friday by the Court of Appeals. Wickerson was a bully and debauchee and had repeatedly asserted that he intended to sleep with Hoffman's wife, in the presence of Hoffman, who was a one-legged man compelled to use a crutch. He went to Hoffman's house and after seeing his crutch, attempted to perpetrate his fiendish and hellish purpose, when Hoffman drew his revolver and shot him dead.
